On a starry night, the five Squish boarded a colorful rocket! Their mission: to visit five solid worlds and plant a Squish flag on each one. Unaffected by cold or heat, and with no need to breathe, they were ready!

The Pirate Squish arrived on Mercury, a place filled with craters and rocks! Hopping between the stones, he discovered a massive mountain. "Land ho!" he shouted. At the mountain's peak, he planted the first Squish flag!

The Princess Squish visited Venus, which was blanketed in thick, golden clouds. She walked across the rocky terrain, surrounded by a mysterious landscape. With her sparkling crown, she planted the second Squish flag!

The Explorer Squish landed on Mars! Using his magnifying glass, he examined red rocks and a towering mountain. "What an incredible discovery!" he cheered. Then, he planted the third Squish flag beneath a sky full of stars!

The Dinosaur Squish touched down on the Moon! He took giant leaps across craters, kicking up silvery dust. "ROAR! I’m the first lunar dinosaur!" he joked. He then planted the fourth Squish flag near a crater!

The Chef Squish returned to Earth—the fifth world of their mission! She chose a mountain illuminated by the Moon and whipped up some cupcakes to celebrate. Afterward, she planted the fifth Squish flag under the starry sky!

With all five flags planted, the Squish gathered on Earth to celebrate! Gazing up at the stars, they reminisced about each of their adventures. "Our friendship is bigger than the Universe!" they said, embracing beneath the brilliant night!
