The house has a beautiful window.
The sun shines on it in the morning.
The boy looks out toward the street.
He sees a bird in the sky.

The window is left open today.
A cold breeze enters the room.
The cat jumps onto the soft sofa.
He watches the day unfold outside.

The rain begins to fall slowly now.
The window gets completely wet.
The boy lets out a cheerful laugh.
He draws a heart on the glass.

The sun returns at the end of the day.
The window reflects the moonlight.
The house becomes calm and peaceful.
And it’s time to go to sleep, surrounded by love.
